John MCGILL

John McGill was born in 1823 in Pennsylvania. With Irish born parents, he was a first generation American. By 1852, he had met and married the young Elizabeth McCutcheon.

---

Their first child, Martha Jane, was born in Ohio. Soon they relocated to Virginia, where they would have three more daughters. Only two of these daughters (Martha and Harriett) would survive. In a few years, the area in Virginia would later become West Virginia.

In 1860, they family lived in Nelson Co, Kentucky in an area called Boston. This area was close to the L&N railroad track. In the census record, it appeared they lived next to the depot. With John working as a railroad contractor it would be a convenient location.

In 1870, they lived in Carter Co, KY, near the railroad. His wife ran a boarding house while he did railroad work.

By 1900, they were living in Winchester, KY with their daughter, Maggie and her four sons.
